New Research Insight

Recent research suggests Parkinson's may begin in the kidneys, not just the brain.

Vital Energy Medicine has focused on rebuilding kidney and adrenal energy for over 15 years. Ask Brendan for a copy of the article or visit: <https://www.sciencealert.com/parkinsons-disease-might-not-start-in-the-brain-study-finds>

About Me

I'm Brendan Thorson M.S., LMP — a teacher, healer, and founder of Vital Energy Medicine. With over 20 years of experience in energy work and Chinese medicine, I've helped people with Parkinson's, chronic illness, and nervous system injuries regain vitality and hope. I combine internal energetic training, Chinese medicine principles, and intuitive healing to help the body activate real transformation.
